The unique beauty of Gorno-Altaysk

Local lifestyle

While in every other part of the world people tend to join the global trend of globalization, indigenous population of Gorno-Altaysk has managed to preserve the traditional lifestyle and the untouched beauty of the local nature. Such an obsolete and outdated lifestyle might seem strange in 2070. Nevertheless, local residents believe that this is the only way to achieve harmony with the nature, which seems to be the sole purpose of their lives. Most people raise cattle and grow fruits and vegetables. Furthermore, their main free-time activity is camping and enjoying picturesque landscapes of their beloved homeland. Although town centre reminds any other small town centre, every building including shops and hotels has passed strict has been built causing minimal damage to the nature.

Modern technologies:

However, locals do not completely reject using technologies. They have found the way to combine modernity and caring attitude towards the environment. Integrated technologies and traditions can be found in almost every aspect of life here. For example, all children are educated at home with the help of modern software which makes studying process effective and enjoyable. Moreover, every farmer tries to find the best solution to reduce increase profits not harming the nature and modern technologies plays a crucial role in solving this problem.

Tourism:

There is the airport built especially for tourists as locals have no intention of leaving their homeland but they are eager to welcome everyone. Tourism is the second source of income after farming. First of all, the concept of eco-friendly is unusual. That is why local farms attract many visitors. Besides, you can explore natural sights that are located nearby on your foot or using eco-friendly vehicles like horses and electrocars.

Conclusion

To sum up, the Gorno-Altaysk will definitely surprise you, so, make sure to visit it one day.
