Introduction.

Do you feel tired of constant noise of cars or your smart home? If so, you should definitely visit Altay, one of few places that preserves its nature and yet does not lack modern comfort.

First Impression.

When first arriving in Altay Republic you will be struck by the amount of green plants and clean air around you. While driving a zero-emission vehicle to the capital city you will also see lots of fascinating rivers. "Why are not they polluted?" - you may ask. Well, thanks to modern technology, we have integrated strong filters that help us to save the nature clean. Special software installed in a vehicle will tell you interesting facts about animals you can meet on your way to the city. But do not touch them, we try ~~to~~ not to disturb them at all.

Entertainment.

You arrived in Gorno-Altaysk, a city surrounded by mountains so carefully preserved by people living here. The city meets you with its unique style, a mix of old and new. Common entertainment like cinemas, gaming parks or clubs are available. But why waste your time on them when you can climb a mountain, sail down a fast and cold river or let yourself live into the native culture? At first, you may think that it is obsolete, but facing the history has never been boring.

Modern comfort.

After a long day of swimming or climbing there is nothing better than a comfortable suit with soft bed, warm bath and a nice view from your window. Moreover, a personal android-assistant will be assigned to you to make your vacation as great as possible.

So, are you still choosing a place to visit? 275
